

2009 Annual NWTEMC CONFERENCE

Save the Date!!!

WHAT: The 2009 Annual NW Tribal Emergency Management Council Conference is coming up soon. This year will be the biggest and best yet.

WHEN: Tuesday October 6 and Wednesday Oct 7th, 2009

WHERE:  Coeur D'Alene Casino in Worley, Idaho

The Annual NWTEMC conference brings together Tribal Emergency Management and Public Safety Officials to share and discuss best practices and current happenings in the field with a Tribal specific focus. The NWTEMC was created by Tribes and allows Tribal representatives to discuss issues that matter to Tribes.

The NWTEMC Conf. is the best Tribal Emergency Management Conference in the Nation with Tribal Officials attending from all over the Northwest and States beyond.

Tentative agenda items include Tribal best practices (presented by Tribal officials offering unique real-world experiences from their Tribal Community). The second day will conclude with an Interoperability Communications Exercise, so bring your radios and satellite phones!!!

Carefully screened Vendors will be on hand showcasing the newest and most useful tools and equipment needed for your Tribe's Emergency operations and response needs.

Registration form and more info can be found at the NWTEMC Conference webpage:
http://nwtemc.org/2009_nwtemc_conf.aspx

Questions? Contact Glenn Coil, NWTEMC Homeland Security Coordinator, at glenn@nwtemc.org, or call 425.281.6955.